Heritage Hub Package Information for the beautiful and historic village of Bruff.

Visitor Information: Visitors to Bruff, Co. Limerick, can learn the history of John Fitzgerald Kennedy, with a guided tour of the newly opened Thomas Fitzgerald Centre. This can be combined with a trip to the unmissable 'Old Irish Ways' Museum, which is just a short distance away.

The Thomas Fitzgerald Centre

The Thomas Fitzgerald Centre is located right in the heart of Bruff, in the Old Courthouse building. This lovely space has been transformed into a visual treat for the visitor, showcasing the links between Bruff, and the Fitzgerald Kennedy family. Thomas Fitzgerald who emigrated from Bruff in 1852, was Great Grandfather to John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 35th President of the United States. This wonderful Centre is a fitting tribute to this world famous family. Including, the Fitzgerald Family Tree Mural, a John F Kennedy 1963 Limerick Visit Photo Exhibition, and an exhibition from the Caroline Kennedy visit of 2013, along with the plaque Caroline unveiled on her visit. There are also a number of displays showcasing memorabilia, and items of interest relating to President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, and other members of this accomplished family. These items are continuously rotated, and there is always something new for the visitor to enjoy. A real treat for anybody with even a passing interest in this famous and celebrated family.

Old Irish Ways Museum

When you take a step through the doors of Old Irish Ways you take a step back through various periods of Irish life. The Museum is a collection of various artefacts and collectibles which were used as part of everyday life down through the years in an Ireland long since past. From the kitchen to the farmyard, the collection built up by Denis over a number of years represents an Ireland of bygone days. The unique displays include An Old Pub, An Old Kitchen, An Irish Creamery, An Old Classroom, Forge, Workshop, a 'must see' Famine Pot and much more.
